PERMISSION TO RETAIN APPLICANT DATA

Many thanks for your interest in our company and for wishing to apply for a role with us.

In accordance with the GDPR \(EU General Data Protection Regulation\), personal data must be destroyed once the purpose for which it was processed has been fulfilled. In this case, that purpose is fulfilled as soon as the position in question has been filled or withdrawn. However, in order to retain applicant data in the case of a speculative application, we require your expressed consent. You have the right to rectification, deletion, restriction and objection at any time in this regard. To exercise these rights, simply contact us at contact@peschke.at.

By signing this document, you agree that we may keep your applicant data on file and store it until you withdraw your consent. We are happy to send you a copy of this document on request.
